ABSTRACT OF ACTS RELATING TO COMMERCE.

ANNO QUINTO & SEXTO-VICTORIÆ REGINÆ-CAP. XLIX.

An ACT to amend the Laws for the Regulation of the Trade of the British Possessions Abroad. [16th July, 1842.]

WHEREAS an Act was passed in the third and fourth Years of the Reign of His late Majesty King WILLIAM the Fourth, intituled An Act to regulate the Trade of the British Possessions Abroad, hereinafter designated as "The Possessions Act"—And Whereas it is expedient to make certain alterations and amendments therein:—Be it therefore enacted by the Queen's Most Excellent Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That, except as hereinafter is provided, from and after the fifth day of July one thousand eight hundred and forty three, so far as relates to the British Possessions in North America; and from and after the fifth day of April one thousand eight hundred and forty three so far as relates to the British Possessions in South America and the West Indies, and from and after the fifth day of July one thousand eight hundred and forty three so far as relates to the Mauritius, this Act shall come into and be and continue in full force and operation for all the purposes mentioned herein.

IV. And be it enacted, that the several Goods enumerated or described in the Table following, denominated "A Table of Prohibitions and Restrictions," are hereby prohibited to be imported or brought, either by Sea or by inland Carriage or of such Possession have both been customarily levied in full without making any deduction from the Imperial Duties in respect of the Colonial Duties or from the Colonial Duties in respect of the Imperial Duties, it shall be lawful, from and after the passing of this Act, for the Officers of the Customs and other Officers duly authorized to continue so to levy in full such Imperial and Colonial Duties respectively during the continuance of the said Possessions Act, any thing in the said Possessions Act contained in any wise notwithstanding.

TONNAGE DUTY ACT.

An Act was passed by the Legislature of this Island, on the 16th November, 1832, for levying a Tonnage Duty on all Vessels, British as well as Foreign, of one shilling and six pence Sterling Money per Ton—to be paid unto Her Majesty's Customs at each and every time such Vessels shall enter Inwards at any Port in the Island. The Tonnage to be taken according to the admeasurement of such Vessels under the Act of 3 & 4 Wm. 4. Chapter 55.
